Heart to Heart Chat – 7.7.2024

My dear friends,

My native country India got Independence from British rule on August 15, 1947. Independence was declared at midnight. Some people have a satire on it: "We got independence at midnight, and it has never dawned." They are referring to the pathetic conditions of millions of poor people still struggling to make a living in this rich country.

As we have celebrated July 4th that is the Independence Day of our great nation, we are called to reflect prayerfully the freedom we enjoy in this nation. Every citizen of many countries throughout the world dreams to come to this country. They all honestly believe that this country offers innumerable opportunities to people who wants to work hard and build a good family life. They are all totally correct in their belief. It is a nation founded on true Christian values believing in one God who created us. It really believes in the true brotherhood of humanity that God wants us to build in every community. It promotes the equality of every person and their freedom to live a meaningful and purposeful human life. This country founded on the right belief that religious duties consist in doing justice, loving mercy, and in endeavoring to make our fellow creatures happy. As we have passed 248 years of Independence, where do we stand now? As a nation, do we really believe in one God and all that he expects us to do with our human life? Does every citizen of this nation enjoy the true religious freedom our founding fathers envisioned? Is human life respected at every level? Do we all work together to offer enough support to make everyone to live a happy and peaceful life? We may not have a clear-cut answer to all the questions I have raised. At the same time, we can as individuals and faith communities take our personal responsibility to exercise our freedom in the right way. Let us live our lives with our deep-rooted trust in the Lord and show others that this is what I believe, and this is what I want to witness through my life. Let us respect every life from conception to death and in this regard, we must be solid in our faith that every life has a dignity and honor. This respect for life should be consistent throughout our life. As faithful Christians, we are called to share our lives with others through our acts of corporal and spiritual works of mercy. Let us never get tired of such great works in our community. Above all, let us love everyone even who totally disagree with us. In that way, we are exercising the great freedom Christ has brought us through his expensive death on the cross. I honestly believe that the Love of Christ will conquer all adversaries in our nation today that we will all one day enjoy the true freedom as the Children of God. Happy Independence Day!

Your brother in Christ,
 Fr. Xavier Ilango

July 7, 2024; 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"As the Lord spoke to me, the spirit entered me and set me on my feet, and I heard the one who was speaking say to me, 'Son of man, I am sending you...'" Ezekiel 2:2-3

God has a plan for each of us. He calls us to do something for Him. But, He doesn't leave us on our own to figure it out. He gives us the resources we need to do His work. Are you listening for God's call? When you hear it, do you get on your feet and do the work He asks of you? Do not be afraid. God doesn't call the equipped, he equips the called. Answer His call.

VICTIM ASSISTANCE STATEMENT OF THE DIOCESE OF CROOKSTON

If you or someone you know has been the victim of sexual misconduct on the part of a priest, deacon, or individual representing the Diocese of Crookston, its parishes, or its schools, your first call should be to law enforcement. In addition, the diocesan Victim Assistance Coordinator is available at 218-281-7895 (24-hour confidential number).

Prayer for the Eucharistic Revival: Lord Jesus Christ, you give us your flesh and blood for the life of the world, and you desire that all people come to the Supper of the Sacrifice of the Lamb. Renew in your Church the truth, beauty, and goodness contained in the Most Blessed Eucharist. Jesus living in the Eucharist, come and live in me. Jesus healing in the Eucharist, come and heal me. Jesus sacrificing yourself in the Eucharist, come and rise to new life in me. Jesus loving in the Eucharist, come and love in me. Lord Jesus Christ, through the paschal mystery of your death and resurrection made present in every Holy Mass, pour out your healing love on your Church and on our world. Grant that as we lift you up during this time of Eucharistic Revival, your Holy Spirit may draw all people to join us at this Banquet of Life. You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever. Our Lady of Guadalupe, Mother of the Eucharist, Pray for us. Amen.
