† We want to thank all who stayed for the Children's Epiphany Program and breakfast last Sunday in support of our youth. A very special thank you to the Knights of Columbus for the goodie bags that were handed out after the program. We thank St. Nicholas for his very special appearance and for helping out with this very special task. A special thank you also goes to the KC's for their contributions towards the breakfast; and to all who helped in the kitchen and dining room.

† Confirmation: Please keep the following in your prayers as they make their final preparations for Confirmation: Thomas Jones, Erin Jubie, Emily Pederson, Morgan Anderson, Hannah Colbert, Kyle Hanson, Rylie Mortimer, Connor Narlock, Emma Oberg, and Matthew Weiland. They will be receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation on Sunday, February 3, 2019, during the 9:30 am Mass at Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic Church.

† January 13, 2019 - Baptism of the Lord

"John answered them all, 'I baptize you with water; but he who is mightier than I is coming...he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit...' " (Luke 3:16) The Catholic Catechism states that "Jesus' immersion in the water is a sign for all human beings of the need to die to themselves to do God's will." In other words, as baptized Catholics there is only one gift that we need to give to Jesus – the gift of ourselves. Surrender yourself to God, place your trust in Him and allow the Holy Spirit to work through you for the greater glory of God.

† Parents, grandparents, and other family members anticipate the Baptism of a child with joy. Through the sacraments, the baby becomes an adopted child of God. This is a special time when the true holiness of an individual is illuminated in the light of the Holy Spirit. Bathed in the baptismal waters, we enter the Church. With the support of the faith community, the relationship of the Christian is nurtured and the individual brings the light of Christ to the world.

If the Holy Spirit then appeared as a dove, what form might the Holy Spirit take today? The Holy Spirit is among us, adding richness to our lives. What blessings and marvels do you witness? What kinds of things do you notice that inspire or challenge you? LTP
